

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

dated at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS,
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, MARCH 15, 1884.

Humpty Dumpty will draw an immense house on March 29th.

E. H. Chamberlain, who for several years kept a fish and fruit stand in this city, committed suicide at the Waverly Hotel, New Orleans, on Monday, by taking chloroform and morphine. He left letters requesting his body be sent to Louisville for interment in Cave Hill Cemetery, and gave as a reason for taking his life that it had been a mistake.

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Jennie R. Brown, wife of Mr. A. W. Brown, formerly of this city, which occurred at the residence of her husband in Louisville on Sunday, after a week's illness. The deceased was a daughter of the late Wm. W. Stephens, of this county. The bereaved husband has the sympathy of a large circle of friends in this city.

The teachers of the Public School made an application to the trustees a few days since for an increase of salary, which they failed to grant, and one of the scholars, a little girl, hearing of it, went to her teacher one morning the first of the week and said, "Miss —, I know you don't get much for teaching us, so here is a nickel for you; I want you to take it, it will help to increase your salary."

Master John W. R. Williams, son of Dr. U. V. Williams, has invented a new incubator. He had a Plymouth Rock hen setting that got tired of her job one day last week and went off and left her nest. In order to save the eggs he placed a lighted lamp in the bottom of a barrel, put the eggs in a basket, ran a stick long enough to reach across the top of the barrel through the handle of the basket, suspended it over the lamp, and then covered the head of the barrel with a blanket. The heat from the lamp did the business, and the eggs went right along hatching just as though the hen had never retired from business, and Master Johnny now has a fine brood of motherless chickens to look after.

The Court of Appeals on Thursday reversed the decision of the lower court in the case of Bug. Branson against Labrot & Graham and Gus. Shaefer. It will be remembered that in the summer of 1881 a child of Branson was playing around a pile of timber on the Harvie lot, on Wilkinson street, which Shaefer was getting out to be used in the construction of a warehouse for Messrs. Labrot & Graham, when the pile of timbers tumbled down on the little fellow and crushed him to death. Branson brought suit against Messrs. Labrot & Graham and Shaefer for damages and when the case came to trial in the Circuit Court the petition was dismissed, and from that judgment Branson appealed, and now the case goes back to the Circuit Court again. Col. John L. Scott is attorney for Branson.

Primary Election.

Primary elections and political conventions are above the law. Bribery and corruption of the most excessive character may be resorted to with impunity and there is no remedy whatever. An honest man stands no chance in either, and the corrupt are generally successful.

Any person under lawful age, any person rendered infamous by crime, may vote with impunity and there is no redress. A man may vote a dozen times and the grand jury can not indict him; he may sell his vote boldly and openly and no man can accuse him of violating the laws; he may buy as many votes as he pleases and there is no law to punish him for it. In such races the men who treat the most and spend the money are always the winners.

The party in the minority is virtually disfranchised. They are excluded from these primary elections and conventions and are not allowed even to make choice of those candidates who are opposed to them politically because unfortunately they happen to be on the weak side.

No wonder so many corrupt and unprincipled men are getting into power all over the country. No wonder there is a rumble of discontent among the masses on account of the men who are selected to rule them. The regular elections recognized by the law and the constitutions are humbugs. The primary election and conventions have superseded them.

Every Representative from Louisville is in favor of the C. & O. appropriation.

WANTED TO B-KNOW:—Three thousand dollars, for one or two years will pay ten per cent. interest and give first mortgage on city real estate. Apply at this office.

Elder George Darrie left Monday morning for Mayville to assist in a protracted meeting and will be absent two weeks. His pulpit will be occupied to-morrow morning by Elder Robt. Moffett.

Mr. Robert B. Wilson's article, in answer to the charges against James G. Arnold and Thomas Crittenden, which appeared in last Sunday's issue of the Courier-Journal, was written and mailed to the Courier-Journal on the 3d inst., but by some oversight it did not appear for several days.

Mr. Wm. M. Crutcher ("Morman Bill"), of the Pea Ridge neighborhood, this county, is the father of twenty children—they youngest was born last week. He has been married twice, eleven children being the fruits of the first marriage and nine of the last, and there were only one pair twins in the lot. He is only 67 years of age, in robust health, and there is no telling how much larger his family will yet be.

The Bridgeport Entertainment.

In order to raise funds for the purpose of erecting a school building at Bridgeport, some of the enterprising citizens of that village have gotten up a series of entertainments which reflect great credit upon all connected with them. Thursday evening a large audience assembled at the Franklin Church to witness one of them, given under the management of Mr. C. H. Parrent, and all agreed that the evening was exceedingly well spent. The programme consisted of instrumental music, an operetta and a charade. Misses Sallie Russell, Alma Scofield, Anna Belle Crockett, Hallie Russell, Mrs. Fannie Parrent, and Messrs. W. H. and Walton Parrent sustained the characters in the operetta and charade, while Miss Kate Sudduth and Mr. R. C. Mayhall furnished the music and all acquitted themselves well, especially Miss Hallie Russell and Mrs. Fannie Parrent. The latter filling the character of Cillie, the colored servant, in a manner that would have done credit to a professional.

A second entertainment was given at the same place last evening by the same company of gentlemen and ladies, which drew another large audience, and gave equal satisfaction. It is to be hoped that the laudable efforts of these ladies and gentlemen may be richly rewarded, as every citizen of that community should lend them a helping hand.

Old Humphry Dumpty is coming.

The river is again falling rapidly after the recent rise.

We have received our first installment of spring poetry.

Col. A. M. Swoppe has resigned his position as collector of this district.

FOUND—A purse containing a small sum of money. Apply at the Postoffice.

Now that we are to have a city directory why can't we have the buildings numbered?

The Mountain boys are beginning to put in an appearance with their rafts of sawlogs.

The Republican County Convention meets this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Court House.

Messrs. Harris & Herrmann's auction draws large crowds every afternoon and evening.

Dr. J. H. Young, of K. M. L., will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist Church tomorrow.

Dr. Sam. Holmes will open a drug store in the old Bachmann corner about the first of April.

If you want to buy a neat little home read advertisement of house and lot for sale in another column.

The next meeting of the Frankfort Lyceum will be held on Thursday evening next at the residence of Mr. W. J. China.

Squire Bohannon's court will meet on Monday, the 24th inst. Wednesday next, the 19th, is the last day for filing processes.

If you want something real nice go to Runyan's and get a box of Turkish Bouquet toilet soap, with a nice wash rag thrown in. It only costs a quarter.

Why can't we have a tobacco warehouse and dry house in this city? There is certainly enough of the weed raised in this county to make the enterprise a paying one.

Miss Jennie Hendrick gave an elegant entertainment on Tuesday evening, in honor of her guests, Misses Barr, of Louisville. A large number of guests were in attendance.

Col. A. W. Dudley has resigned the position of President of the Branch Bank of Kentucky, in this city, on account of failing health, after thirty-five years service, being in his 86th year.

The mechanical clock will be raffled at Mr. P. Selbert's jewelry establishment on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Those having chances should bear it in mind and be on hand to look after their interest.

Hon. W. C. Owens has been called upon by a number of citizens of Scott county to become a candidate for Congress in this district. If he accepts the people of this city and county certainly ought to stand by him.

The bill to appropriate three hundred thousand dollars to complete the Capitol building in this city came to a vote in the House of Representatives on Wednesday and failed for want of a constitutional majority. It lacked seven votes of the requisite number, and there is yet some hopes that it may be again taken up on a motion to reconsider, and passed.

Take the children to see Humphry-Dumpty.

The crowing of third street, at the intersection of Shelby, is in a miserable condition and should be raised. There is a great deal of travel over it and for the past week or two it has been covered with several inches of mud.

"The honorary degree of Doctor of Medicine," according to the rules of the University of Tennessee, "may be granted in numbers not exceeding one yearly, to distinguished physicians of over forty years of age," hence the greatest compliment that can be bestowed on a practitioner of medicine is to be found worthy to wear this, the highest of all honors conferable. Doctor Harris may truly be proud of this, his fourth diploma. Especially coming as it did from his old alma mater, an institution standing second to none, and at the instance of his old preceptor and life long friend, Dr. Bowling, one of the greatest physicians living.

We congratulate the Doctor on this, his merited preferment, wishing him a long, happy and prosperous life.

NASHVILLE, TENN., March 6th, 1884.
WILLIAM HARRIS, M. D., Frankfort, Ky.
MY DEAR DOCTOR: I have the pleasure of informing you that the Faculty of the Medical Department, University of Tennessee, at the instance of Prof. Wm. K. Bowling, M. D., LL. D., conferred the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Medicine on you at the public commencement exercises, Feb. 26th last.

I send by this mail the diploma of the University, which I trust you may receive in good shape. Wishing you every success, I am yours very truly.

DUNCAN EMM. M. D., Dean.

Messrs. Shook & Collier's Company will appear at the Opera House in this city, on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, March 24th, 25th, and 26th, in the Lights of London. The following is a synopsis of the play:

The hardship of a loving young couple driven from a home of luxury into the streets of London, because of a headstrong father's disapproval of his son's marriage to a poor man's daughter, is drawn out in all its bitterness. The son, Harold Armitage, is arrested and given a seven year's term in prison for the murder and robbery of his father, committed by Seth Green, a rough character, through the instrumentality of an avaricious cousin, Clifford Armitage. The latter inherits the estate of Harold's father, while he (Harold) goes to prison and his wife finds employment in London, as a servant. To make a long story short, Harold escapes from prison after serving three years, is pursued and hunted down by his cousin Clifford and a detective, Harold after traveling in his prison garb for several nights in cold and snowy weather, finally falls in with a family who are traveling the country as dramatists. These people befriend him, take him to their home, where luckily he meets his wife whom he has not seen for three years. While joy and happiness are about to reign the cousin and are surprised by detectives, who invade the house in search of the escaped convict, Harold Armitage. He eludes his pursuers, wanders once more out in the cold, cruel world with his wife. At every crook and turn they are hounded down. While sleeping out by a stream, in Regent Park, Harold is startled by seeing a man in the water struggling for his life. He at once springs into the stream and rescue the man from drowning. The rescued man proves to be Seth Green, who was thrown overboard from a bridge by Clifford Armitage, because the former was about to expose the latter's villainy in the robbery and murder of Squire Armitage, Harold's father. The escaped convict and his wife still wander aimlessly about, but are caught at last. Harold is brought to the police headquarters, placed on trial, and is about to be remanded to prison, when Seth Green suddenly turns up and declares that Harold is innocent, that he is the man who murdered Squire Armitage, and that Clifford Armitage is the man who planned the murder and robbery and reaped the benefits. Thus the true facts are brought to light. Harold is released and Clifford is arrested. The former returns to the house of which he was deprived for years by the villainy of his cousin, Clifford. Thus the play ends and the curtain drops, as Shakespeare says, "All well that ends well."

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Point Pleasant.

Rain, snow and sleet, consequently news is scarce.

Mr. Ed. Stivers visited Mr. Butler Glor Tuesday night.

Mr. John B. Harrod, of Harp, paid the Point a flying visit Tuesday.

Messrs. Tracy and Bryant have moved to Mr. L. L. Conway's farm, near Antioch.

Miss Laura Glor visited the Point Sunday, the guest of Mrs. R. J. Shannon.

Mr. Mat Chisholm has removed to the farm of County Attorney J. A. Violet, at Flag Fork.

Misses Flora Wallace and Sallie Hopper, at Antioch neighborhood, visited Mrs. W. J. Shannon Sunday.

Mr. James Glor sold to Mr. John Wiley, of Pleasant Ridge, a fine three-year-old mare, last week, for one hundred dollars.

Mr. John Moore, of the Ridge, Mr. Lanza Wallace, of Antioch, Mr. John Hopper, of Sensible, Shelby county, were the guests of Hawk Eye Sunday.

Mr. Wm. Snow visited the Point Monday. He says that the widow he has found has seven boys and two girls and that is too much to start on for him.

Mr. Nicholas Allison, Shelbyville neighborhood, formerly of Bald Knob, visited the Point last Friday night, the guest of Hawk Eye. He says he is very much pleased with his move.

I would like to see the sight. We are told that Col. Dave Moore has had his picture enlarged. Wonder if he can get it in his house or does he keep it hanging out doors for the public to look at.

Mr. F. F. Arnold, of Midway, paid the Point a flying visit Monday. He says he is in search of his third wife, and wants a young girl about 16 years old, nice, gentle, and industrious. He says he is in a fix to take good care of a lady.

Col. Dave Moore attended the sale of Mr. N. J. Moore, March 4, and the auctioneer was in the house selling some furniture. The house was crowded and bidding lively when the Colonel pushed his way through the crowd to see what was going on when, lo! there was a crash and the floor of the room gave way under the weight of Col. Dave. Some one yelled out fire and the crowd ran out, but it was soon found that no damage was done, only the breaking of three or four sleepers.

Another ghost has been heard of in the vicinity of Mrs. Arnold's graveyard. A couple of gentlemen went to a neighbor's to sit until bed time, and on their return home had to pass the graveyard. When opposite the yard the elder of the two said he heard something and believed he would run, and started, but could not keep up with the younger one as run so fast. The older gentleman says he firmly believes the young man jumped fifty feet at a jump, and the last he saw of him he was going over a plank fence without touching it. The gentleman says he was bound to laugh to see how fast he ran. The young man will not brag about his bravery any more.

Pleasant View.

The continued bad weather has prevented the farmers from doing any plowing at this time.

Mr. Wm. Dearing has sold his farm of 125 acres near this place, to Mr. Ed. Long for $13,500.

A show was to have exhibited at this place Saturday night, but for some reason the showman failed to put in an appearance.

Mr. George Therman has rented the house of Mr. J. W. Watkins, and will carry on business in Franklin instead of Henry county.

Mr. Israel Rodgers is buying up a large lot of cattle and paying good prices for them, and is also making arrangements for a large crop of tobacco the coming season.

Pleasant Ridge.

Come, boys, an industrious man is what I like to see. Don't let the spring fever get hold of you.

Boys keep your boots blacked, for we will have a wedding soon. Johnny is talking to Miss—and he says there is no fooling with him.

Look out, boys, we will have some cold weather. Mr. William Harrod (the String) was going up this road with a bed quilt wrapped around him.

Boys, look out if you want to trade. I saw two boys at church last Sunday trading knives while the preacher was praying, and they closed the trade.

S. Dermon Head went grubbing last week, and one of our industrious men piled brush as long as he could stand up and then got down on his knees and piled.

A young man in this community wears a ring with a tin pan string to it. Some of the boys say they do not know why he wears it unless he is the cook.

Mr. Van D. Harrod visited Mr. Henry Rogers, He and Tom were walking about the farm and ran up on a black polecat and shot six shots at it, and then it got away, but the boys say the rest of his days will not be long.

Go and see the Boss Clothes Horse at Whitesides & McEwan's. It is the best thing of the kind ever brought to this city.

Bagdad.

The turnpike fever is abating.

We are being smiled upon once more by beautiful weather.

Messrs. J. D. and V. Whitman were the guests of Miss Jessie last Sunday.

Miss Ellen Lee has been visiting relatives the past two weeks, near the Cross-roads.

The singing class met at the residence of Mr. E. Lent Monday night and was conducted by Prof. T. J. Hill and Charley Roberts.

Switzer.

Born.—On the 9th, to G. W. Hopkins and wife, a son.

John M. Newman left for Bloomington, Illinois, last Monday.

Mr. C. M. Cook, of Oxford, is painting Mr. Dudley Baker's new residence.

A. H. Holland, who has been quite sick for some time, is able to be out again.

Miss Susie Lynne has been quite ill for sometime and at this writing is but little if any better.

Mr. Bert Arnold, of Peaks Mill neighborhood, has bought a farm near our village and is now moving to his new home.

The funeral of James Miller, who died of pneumonia March 31 at his home on Flat Creek, will be preached at North Fork tomorrow, at eleven o'clock.

The drawing for the handsome hand made buggy robe made by Mrs. Lizzie McCoy, will take place at her residence Saturday, March 22, at three o'clock P. M. All who have taken chances are invited to be in attendance.

You can rest assured that your Switzer correspondent will never go back on a friend, and in the case of Punch and Judy he is sure not to. His parents taught him a lesson in childhood to always respect old age, and that lesson has never been neglected or forgotten.

The tide of emigration will soon have ceased to roll on, the farmers will no longer congregate at our village stores and complain of bad weather and hard times. A great many large crops of tobacco have been cultivated around the stores of our merchants the past winter, but now as the spring time is at hand, they will soon begin to turn the soil, scatter the seed, and make general arrangements for a large crop of the product that Kentucky soil so abundantly grows.

Once a Week.

Between the Bridges.

Not much news in this section this week.

Tom Dougherty and G. B. Roach have the measles.

Mr. Frank Hackley has been quite sick for several days.

Mr. Mack Thurman, of Danville, was in this neighborhood Wednesday.

Mr. John S. Roach, who recently moved from this place to Anderson county, is visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity this week.

Miss Florence Collins, of White Hall and Miss Ruth Mastin, of Woodford county, are visiting friends and relatives in this neighborhood this week.

Dr. Johnson has a felon on one of his fingers that prevents him from attending the socials but it does not keep him from chatting the photographer's girl.

Tolu and Tuffy some pumpkins on poetry but I he says anything more about Punch and Judy's ages he will be hurt worse than he was when that fog fell on him.

Miss Ella Collins, who has been on a visit to Taylor county for some time, returned home last Saturday evening, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Myrtle Smith.

The Tinsley boys are about winding up their corn hauling for this season, as it is about time to begin to make preparations for farming, and they contemplate raising a large crop this year.

Those and countenances we spoke of last week have disappeared, and in their stead the young ladies are wearing pleasant smiles for the welcome guests whose absence caused so much sadness.

Messrs. Tom and Sam Collins returned home from Taylor county Tuesday with forty odd head of cattle, and notwithstanding their long wearisome journey they hardly took time to greet their Alton friends before they were under their appearance Between the Bridges.

Equire S. M. Tinsley was in Frankfort two days last week assisting in a settlement between Messrs. Sacra and Mahoney, and after the settlement was satisfactorily closed Mr. Sacra rented the livery stable of Mr. Mahoney and purchased the entire stock of huggies, horses, &c., belonging there and will continue to run the business. As Mr. Sacra was once our neighbor, and we know him to be a clever gentleman, we hope the good people of the town and county will give him a liberal patronage.

Punch and Judy.

Cedar Run.

Messrs. Henry and Price Moore spent several days on Stony Creek the first of the week.

Will Moore and sons attended the sale of his brother, Than Moore, on Stony Creek, last Tuesday.

Mr. Chap Thomas bought a fine mule. He says he can't wait for the ground to dry to start his plow.

T. L. Moore wants a post-office established at the blacksmith shop on Cedar Run for his convenience.

Mr. Alice Jones is trying to make up a three months school at the Cedar Run School House. We hope she will be successful.

Miss Annie Moore has returned home from a week's visit to her Uncle Job Smith, of Bloomington, the land where the famous Nipper dwells.

Still Smiley, the contractor, has commenced the work of moving the rock that came down in the slide a few weeks since in front of J. T. Gray's residence.

Mr. Andrew Roberts and Miss Mary E. Dunlap were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock at the residence of Mr. S. E. Dunlap, at 4 p. m. on the 6th inst. May all the usual happiness attend the newly wedded pair, and may all future blessings be added.

Stamping Ground.

Miss Lila Poindexter has opened her school again.

Mr. C. H. Duvall is studying medicine under Dr. R. S. Sparks.

Mr. J. C. Applegate has been quite ill with pneumonia, but is able to be out again.

Mr. Billy Newman has been quite ill with pneumonia, but is improving rapidly now.

Mr. George Wigington has delivered about all of his tobacco crop—about 10,400 pounds.

Mrs. Duvall and son Sid, who have been quite sick for some time, are both able to be out again.

Mr. Wm. Mothershead is a candidate for matrimony and would like to secure a deputy to join in with him.

There will be a large quantity of tobacco put in this year, in this section, if one may judge by the tremendous winter crop that is now being raised.

Our town is improving rapidly. We now have three schools—one of them called the College, the district school, and the other the Buffalo school.

Mr. James Kelly is making great preparations to have a large crop of tobacco put in on shares. He will put in about 30 acres, and if I am not mistaken he will need a great many hands to tend it, as the worms will all go to his patch to stay.

Flag Fork.

James R. Harrod closed his school at Bald Knob last Thursday.

W. C. Owens is in the lead for Congress in this section of the county.

Born.—To W. E. Thompson and wife, March 5th, a boy—Lee Collins.

Miss Luther Harrod, of Buford Town, is visiting the family of V. M. Poole.

Miss Ella Kelly, of Bailey's Mill, is visiting her parents this week at Cropper's.

Mr. Frank Polsgrove has been very sick for the past few weeks but is recovering.

Miss Lettie Harrod is visiting her Cousin, Miss Josie Pott, of Bailey's Mill, this week.

Miss Kate Kelley, of Shelby county, is visiting the family of Judge C. V. Bailey this week.

Messrs. Bailey, Downey and Watkins will have their saw and grist-mill in operation next week.

E. B. Bailey sold a tract of land containing 17 acres to Wesley Flood for $83 dollars per acre.

E. B. Long sold at the 9th street tobacco Warehouse, Louisville, last Monday, 4 hogheads of tobacco at $21, $17, $14, $14.75.

Mr. Charley Quire was visiting his friends on Sand Kettle last Sunday. He aimed to climb the tree and look for his girl, but fell off and was badly wounded in one foot and leg.

Strayed or stolen—a young man of this place was seen last Sunday to see his girl, and when last heard of he was near Cropper's, Shelby county. Any information as to his whereabouts will be thankfully received.

A gentleman of this place has attended four County Courts to sell his horse and has filled up in this date to dispose of him, and his only excuse for not selling, is that a blacksmith of Belle Point furnishes such good accommodations he fails to get his horse on the market. We trust the stock sales next County Court day will be moved over in Belle Point for his special benefit.
